HELLO & WELCOME

THE BIG MALARKEY FESTIVAL IS HULL'S FIRST EVER CHILDREN'S LITERATURE FESTIVAL!

We wish you a fun-filled time, trying all kinds of activities - watching, making, listening, writing, singing and maybe discovering stuff you didn't know about the wonderful world of children's literature and stories. Hull Libraries is delighted to bring you this first festival - we hope it is the first of many, so don't forget tell us what you think before you go!

CHRIS HIGGINS SPORTING TALES

- 2.30 - 4pm
- Live & Kicking
- 12+ years
- TALK & BOOK SIGNING

Chris will be talking about two of her sports related books for teens, Pride and Penalties and A Perfect 10, which won the Young Minds Book Award in 2009. Explore friendship, rivalry, motivation and the way people desperately try to control their own lives.

SETTLE STORIES: 3 LITTLE PIGS

Three houses, three pigs, one storyteller - let Sita and her puppet friends enchant you again with this classic tale, and some more traditional stories from across the world.

LOVE
MY LIBRARY

Find out about all the great free services that Hull Libraries provide e-books, career guidance, business advice, apprenticeships, all kinds of events and activities, as well as lending books.

Festival authors and illustrators will be popping in to sign books over the weekend too.

SATURDAY 1ST JULY

Nick Arnold – 11.15 am
Kristyna Litten - 12.30pm

SUNDAY 2ND JULY

Annabel Pitcher – 12.30pm
Lydia Monks – 1pm
Julian Clary & David Roberts – 3.30 pm

QWERTY YURT

Chill out in our low-tech no-tech festival yurt – a space for a breather, to pick up a book or just have a lie-down on our comfy cushions and stare at the ceiling. Qwerty yurt is there for everyone to use, but it will also host some age-specific talks and workshop sessions through the weekend.

ADVENTURE BUREAU

- 3 - 4pm
- Qwerty Yurt
- 12+ years
- PERFORMANCE & Q&A

A comedy adventure impro session to get your creative juices flowing! After the session there'll be a chance to ask questions of performers Simon Panrucker and Katy Storer about working in theatre, music, song writing, comedy, dance and clowning.

ANORAK

The Creative Team at Studio Anorak will be running drop in workshops to help you create comic strips, pop-up stories, newspapers and illustrated stories. Drop in to see what it's all about.

- STORYBOOK BALL

STORYBOOK BALL

The festival's nearly over – let's get on the dance floor in all our finery for a final knees-up at the Storybook Ball! Come as your favourite character and have a last larkabout to Hull's own Shiznitz.

ODDSOX

The Big Malarkey is inviting everyone to create a sock puppet to bring to the festival - and now is the chance to let your sock puppet shine!

Bring him/her/it to the Oddsox Stage and we'll catch it on camera for posterity.
